Reflection: "Let your light shine before human beings." We know that St. Paul was knowledgeable, in fact he was an expert in the law, a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. (Acts 23:6) Yet, we hear in today's second reading that he preached, not with lofty words and wisdom, he kept his proclaiming simple – "Christ, and him crucified". This simple proclaiming is good news for us as we strive to share the gift of faith that we have received with those who don't know Christ. We can let our light shine through simple words and deeds, praise God! Being a light to others begins with acknowledging God as the very source of our lives, our words, our understanding and skills. This humble disposition creates room in our hearts, and minds, for our words and actions to be entirely inspired by the Holy Spirit, and in this way, we are good stewards of the mysteries of God.
