Reflection: Today's readings all in some way speak of our purpose or calling. St. Paul tells us that we are "called to be saints"; John the Baptist was clear about his calling; and, the Psalmist invites us to respond, "Here I am Lord, I come to do your will". To be a saint is to be set apart by God. This call comes from God the Father. What purpose or calling have you been set apart for? What unique gifts has God provided to enable you to live a life of purpose? Following God's will may not always be easy, however God always provides...provided we do our part! Being a good steward of our individual calling is doing our part.

The 2017 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, Jan. 18-25, has the theme "Reconciliation - The Love of Christ Compels Us" (2 Cor 5:14) and was prepared by churches and Christian communities in Germany. 2017 also marks the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. The emphasis of this year's service is on Jesus Christ and his work of reconciliation. The love of Christ compels us to pray, but also to move beyond our prayers for unity among Christians. Join with brothers and sisters of various churches in prayer, song, and witness to unity as followers of Christ.
