Stewardship Reflection

February 28, 2021 - 2nd Sunday of Lent

"Here I am!" he answered."- Genesis 22:11

It is easy to say, "Here I am, Lord," when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say "Here I am, Lord," when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support?

Often times we are called when it's not convenient for us.

Discipleship is not always easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

Archbishop asks health officials to reconsider B.C. public worship ban

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I pray that your Lenten Season has begun well and that it will be a source of many blessings for you and your family.

As you know, on November 19, 2020, the Provincial Health Officer, Dr. Bonnie Henry, issued an Order which included a prohibition on religious gatherings for a period of nearly three weeks. This Order was extended in December and again in January, and then, most recently, it was extended indefinitely on February 5, 2021. As a result, our priests have been unable to offer Holy Mass with a congregation, despite the precautions that we had previously taken to combat the spread of COVID-19.

As Easter approaches, I want to assure you that the Archdiocese is taking steps to advocate with the Provincial Government for a safe return to in-person attendance at Mass. It is my ardent hope that we can return from our extended "fast" from the Eucharist and join together to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection this Easter.

I am very grateful for the way that Catholics of the Archdiocese have respected the health Orders of the Provincial Government, while continuing to follow the livestreaming of Mass from our parishes. Like most British Columbians, Catholics are making a great many sacrifices to follow the Orders of the Provincial Health Officer, in order to curb the spread of the coronavirus pandemic, and will continue to do so as good citizens who care for the welfare of their neighbours.

While we respect the measures taken by Government to protect the health of British Columbians, we want to be assured that the Orders are being fairly applied to all sectors of the population. Specifically, we seek to understand why gathering for worship in limited numbers with safety precautions is not allowed, while bars, restaurants and gyms remain open. It also seems necessary to remind the Government that religious freedom is a specifically protected right guaranteed by Canada's Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Last week, I formally requested that the Provincial Government reconsider the Order that currently limits our ability to celebrate Mass publicly in our churches. This request follows several enquiries, dating back to December 2020, from the St. Thomas More Catholic Lawyers Guild. They asked for information regarding the rationale for restricting religious worship, while other gatherings in BC are allowed to continue as long as they enforce the necessary safety measures. I am deeply grateful to the lawyers of the Guild for their wise counsel and their assistance in preparing the request submitted to the Government.

My request for reconsideration outlines several additional measures that the Archdiocese will implement in our parishes. Some of these go beyond measures that were in place last year. They include limiting attendance at Masses and other gatherings, at least initially, to 10% of the capacity of the church, requiring attendees to wear masks at all times, restricting indoor or outdoor social gatherings before or after Mass, and having ushers present at all Masses to ensure adherence to strict safety guidelines.

I believe that this request to the Provincial Government, and the proposed measures, are just and worthy of reconsideration. You will receive updates on developments as they unfold.

With gratitude for your support of our brothers and sisters in need of your solidarity at this trying time, and with my prayers for your families during this holy season, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ J. Michael Miller, CSB
Archbishop of Vancouver

Soup & Buns

2021 is going to look different this year! The Agassiz Harrison Ministerial Association will be hosting a virtual Lenten Soup and Buns!

We will be hosting Zoom services on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-7pm. They will begin Wednesday, February 24th, and run until Wednesday, March 31st. They will be similar to those we have hosted previously over the years; however, they will be over the computer.

Our theme this year will be Psalm 23. We will reflect on this psalm verse by verse over the 6 weeks.

The Ministerial Association will receive an offering to help continue the work of the association, and also to help provide scholarships to Christian students pursuing post-secondary education. Cheques can be made payable to the Agassiz Harrison Ministerial Association and can be dropped off at our parish office. Of course, cash is always accepted.

If anyone needs assistance with getting Zoom running on their computer please do not hesitate to contact the Parish office so that you can get online in order to take part in this weekly event.

And so, we encourage you to join us for the services and maybe even cook up a pot of soup and bake some buns to enjoy after the service!

Below you can find the link for the zoom Lenten Soup and Buns Services.

Fr. Dennis

My brother Knights and Parishioners of St Anthony of Padua

It is with great pride that I announce the election of Brother Marc Orr to the chair of Grand Knight of St Anthony of Padua Knights of Columbus, Council 16364.

Over the past years, Marc's service to our council as well as to our parish through his work on getting the parish thrift store up and running has shown him to be a good and faithful example of what we as Knights stand for.

I am certain that when situations allow us to resume meetings, Marc's leadership will guide our council in helping our church and its members emerge from the year of pandemic which we have endured with God's grace.

Please join me in congratulating Marc in his new position as Grand Knight.

Anthony G Pavick
Deputy Grand Knight
St Anthony of Padua Knights of Columbus Council 16364
