We, the Catholic community of St. Anthony of Padua, relying on the wisdom and the grace of God, unite ourselves to the call for renewal and transformation of our spiritual, social and economic life.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time January 22nd, 2023

We are urged to put aside our differences and work collectively for the common good; otherwise, we will not be imitating Christ who is the centre of our existence. This is a challenging reminder to us in this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, for all Christians to be faithful to our baptismal vocation to proclaim the gospel with one voice, following Jesus without fear or reluctance.

Stewardship Reflection

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him." - Matthew 4:22

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. In gratitude to God, we should give our first and best of everything to Him: our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

Vancouver Archbishop J. Michael Miller, CSB is the next CPC³ Lecture guest speaker.

A Happy New Year to you all (and, I'll throw in a "Merry Christmas" as well since it's still Christmastide). Would you be able to include this in your bulletins for the next two weeks?

Come out to our next lecture at CPC, Wednesday, January 25 at 7pm at the CPC building! The guest speaker for the evening is none other than Vancouver Archbishop J. Michael Miller, CSB. What is the role of authority in the Church? Who must we obey as Catholics? And, in regards to what must we obey them? It's a crucial topic for our times, and there's no one better to speak to us about it than our very own shepherd, Archbishop Miller. Bring your questions. Bring your friends. This is a wonderful evangelistic opportunity, and all are welcome. But, register soon so that we have enough room for everyone. Register for free at catholicpacific.ca/cpc3
