The 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 18, 2026

January 18 - 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” Isaiah 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

February

Presentation of the Lord & Blessing of Candles (Candlemas), celebrated on February 2, marks the moment when Mary and Joseph brought the infant Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem, forty days after His birth, in accordance with Jewish law. There, Simeon and Anna recognized Him as the “light for revelation to the nations” (Luke 2:32).

Because of this imagery of light, the Church developed the tradition of the Blessing of Candles on this day — giving the feast its popular name, Candlemas. Candles symbolize Christ as the Light of the World, and the faithful often bring candles from home to be blessed for use throughout the year, especially during prayer, storms, or times of illness.

Please bring your candles for blessing prior to this date. Remember to include your name(s) so that you can pick them up after the blessing is concluded.

February 3

As Catholics, practices that others might find unusual are second nature to us—and sometimes even taken for granted. We venerate relics, pray with beads, process through the streets with floats, and turn to St Anthony when something is lost.

In the same way, we celebrate the 3 February feast of St Blaise with a unique and beautiful tradition—the blessing of throats.

St Blaise was a 3rd-century Armenian bishop known for his deep faith, fervent love for God and his people, and a reputation for working miracles even during his lifetime. His unwavering witness to Christianity made him a target of persecution by the Romans in Cappadocia, where he was living. When his arrest was ordered, St Blaise fled to the wilderness, continuing his mission in service to God despite the challenges he faced.

St Blaise is renowned for his miraculous healing powers, particularly concerning throat ailments. According to legend, a boy suffering from a fishbone lodged in his throat—or another severe throat malady—was brought to St Blaise as a last resort. The boy was on the brink of death, with no hope of recovery. Saint Blaise prayed over him, blessed him, and miraculously, the boy was healed.

This established St Blaise as the patron saint for those afflicted with throat injuries and diseases. It is from this miraculous act of healing that the Catholic Church commemorates his feast day and has the blessing of throats on the Feast of St Blaise.

Dear brothers and sisters,

We begin our new series of catecheses on the Second Vatican Council by considering Dei Verbum, the Dogmatic

Constitution on Divine Revelation. As today's Scripture reading reminds us, Jesus calls us friends because he has revealed to us everything that he has heard from the Father. It is through Revelation, which reaches its fullness in Jesus, the Word made flesh, that we are invited to share in God's life as his children in Christ. We are reminded that friendship with God is not only a gift, but also an invitation that requires a response, as in any relationship. To cultivate this friendship, we must spend time with God in prayer, both personally and especially through the Liturgy, where the community gathers to listen to the word of God with the guidance of the Church. Together, let us respond wholeheartedly to the Lord's invitation and discover in his friendship the true mystery of our salvation.

My blessing to everyone
